13°.- Information to Shareholders on amendments to the Regulations of the Board of Directors.

14°.- Delegation of Powers

SUPPLEMENT TO CALL

In accordance with article 519 of the Capital Companies Act, shareholders representing at least five percent of capital may: (i) request publication of a supplement to this call including one or more points on the Agenda, provided that the new points are accompanied by an explanation or, if applicable, an explained proposed resolution; and (ii) present supported proposed resolutions regarding matters already included or that should be included on the agenda of the meeting that is called. In either situation, if the proposed resolutions require approval by Class B shareholders, the supplement to call will provide for the separate voting of Class A and Class B shareholders. These rights must be exercised by certifiable notice that must be received at the registered office (Gran Vía 32, Madrid 28013) within the five days following publication of this call, identifying the shareholders exercising the right and the number of shares owned by them, and attaching such other documentation as may be appropriate. For these purposes, the shareholders must demonstrate to the Company, also in a certifiable manner, that they represent at least that percentage of capital. The foregoing is understood to be without prejudice to the right of any shareholder during the conduct of the General Meeting to make alternative proposals or proposals on points that are not included on the agenda, on the terms contemplated in the Capital Companies Act.

RIGHT OF ATTENDANCE

The General Meeting may be attended by all shareholders that, individually or collectively, own at least 60 shares, registered in the corresponding book-entry records five days in advance of the date of holding the Meeting, and are in possession of the corresponding attendance card issued by any of the custodians that are members of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A. (Iberclear), in accordance with the provisions of article 15 of the Bylaws, article 7 of the General Meeting Regulations and article 179 of the Capital Companies Act.

RIGHT OF REPRESENTATION

Any shareholder entitled to attend may grant a proxy to another person, even if not a shareholder, to attend the General Meeting, by satisfying the requirements and formalities set forth in the Bylaws, the General Meeting Regulations and by law.

The proxy must contain or attach the Agenda.

A proxy may be evidenced in any of the following documents, in all cases with a handwritten signature: (i) the attendance card issued by the custodians participating in Iberclear, (ii) a letter or (iii) the standard form made available by the Company for these purposes to the shareholders, as indicated below in this call. The document evidencing the proxy may be sent by mail to the Company through the Shareholder Relations Office, at the registered office (Gran Vía 32, Madrid 28013) or at the address of the Office (Avda. de los Artesanos 6, Tres Cantos, 28760 Madrid) or delivered at the entrance to the general meeting site, to the Company's organisers, on the day it is held, before it commences.

If a proxy is extended in favour of the Board of Directors, or if the proxy does not state the name of the person to which the proxy is granted, it will be understood to have been granted to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

If the proxy grantor does not give voting instructions, it shall be understood that the proxy could vote in the sense most appropriate for the shareholder interest.

In the event the proxy is granted by a public request and the proxy grantor has not indicate voting instructions, it shall be understood that the proxy (i) refers all the points on the agenda of the General Meeting, (ii) the vote is in favour of all the proposed resolutions made by the Boards of Directors and (iii) extends to any off-agenda items that may arise in which case the proxy shall vote in the sense most appropriate for the shareholder interest.

If the appointed proxy has a conflict of interest when voting on any of the proposals that, whether or not on the Agenda, are submitted to the General Meeting, and the proxy grantor has not given precise voting instructions, the proxy should refrain from voting for the points on which, having a conflict of interest, have to vote on behalf of the shareholder.

A proxy also may be granted by remote electronic communication by way of the Company's website (www.prisa.com), from 18 April 2013, by completing the standard electronic form available for these purposes on the Company's website. That electronic document must include an electronic signature recognised or provided by any of the certification service providers referred to in the following section on remote voting. A proxy granted by remote electronic means of communication must be in the possession of the Company, at its headquarters, at least 24 hours in advance of the time contemplated for holding the General Meeting on first call.

(Free translation from the original in Spanish language)

For purposes of articles 523 and 526 of the Capital Companies Act, it is noted that if the proxy appointed by a shareholder is the Chairman or any other director of the Company, they have a conflict of interest regarding point 12° of the Agenda (Non-binding voting on the Remuneration Policy Report). Also, the following directors have a conflict of interest: Ms. Arianna Huffington regarding point 4.1 of the agenda (Ratification of the appointment by cooptation and election of Director Ms. Arianna Huffington), Mr Jose Luis Leal Maldonado regarding point 4.2 of the agenda (Ratification of the appointment by cooptation and election of Director Mr. Jose Luis Leal Maldonado) and Mr Manuel Polanco Moreno regarding point 10 of the Agenda (Authorization of a long-term incentives plan by delivery of cash and shares of the Company, as variable remuneration of its management team, including an executive director).

Directors may likewise have a conflict of interest regarding the proposed resolutions, if any, presented apart from the Agenda, if, among other circumstances, they relate to removal of a director or imposition of liability thereon.

REMOTE VOTING

A shareholder may cast its vote remotely, by complying with the requirements and formalities set forth in article 15 of the Articles of Association, in articles 10 and following of the General Meeting Regulations and by law.

To cast a vote by mail, a shareholder must complete and send to the Company, through the Shareholder Relations Office, at its registered office (Gran Vía 32, Madrid 28013) or at the address of the Office (Avda. de los Artesanos 6, Tres Cantos, 28760 Madrid) the standard form provided by the Company for these purposes (made available to shareholders as indicated in the following section on the "Information Right" in this call), which will include the information necessary to show status as a shareholder, with the signature of the shareholder being required to be attested by a notary or acknowledged by a custodian participating in Iberclear. In the case of legal persons, the form must be accompanied by the corresponding document sufficiently showing the representative capacity in which the signatory acts.

The vote also may be cast by remote electronic means of communication, by way of the Company's website (www.prisa.com), from 18 April 2013, for that purpose completing the standard electronic form provided for these purposes on the Company's website. The electronic document sent by the shareholder must include an electronic signature recognised or provided by any of the following certification service providers: CERES (Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre - Real Casa de la Moneda); CAMERFIRMA; or ANCERT (Agencia Notarial de Certificación). The electronic National Identity Document (Documento Nacional de Identidad electrónico, or "DNIe") issued by the General Police Directorate of the Spanish Ministry of the Interior may also be used.

A remote vote, whether sent by mail or by remote electronic means of communication, must be in the possession of the Company, at its headquarters, at least 24 hours in advance of the time contemplated for holding the General Meeting on first call. Otherwise, the vote will be deemed not to have been cast.
